Visit to Carlisle Tuesday 8th May 2012

This year's annual outing is to Carlisle and The Cathedral Church of the Holy and Undivided Trinity. The cathedral dates back to 1122 with 14th and 15th century restoration. It has a magnificent 14th century barrel vaulted painted ceiling, 15th century choir stalls with paintings on the back and misericords, 14th century stained glass and a treasury.

There will be a Guided Tour of the Cathedral which is optional.

Other attractions in the city are the Castle, Tullie House Museum and The Lanes Shopping Centre.

Arriving in the city about lunch time your time is your own, until the time of the return journey. There are plenty of places for lunch around the city centre.
