

Council for British Archaeology in the North West Spring Conference

The Mesolithic of North-West England: Current Research

May 11th 2013,

Upper Hall, The Friends Meeting House, 6 Mount St, Manchester M2 5NS

Directions:

The Friends Meeting House is behind the Manchester Central Library and close to the Town Hall and Albert Square. There is a bus stop outside (where the city centre shuttle bus stops) and more bus stops within a few minutes' walk. The nearest tram stop is a couple of minutes' walk away. The stop is called St Peter's Square. Oxford Road is the closest railway station - around 10 minutes' walk - and Piccadilly, Victoria and Deansgate stations are also within walking distance. There is a bike rack but no car park for public use. There are several car parks within walking distance - these are well signposted. The postcode for the meeting house is M2 5NS. There is disabled access throughout the meeting house except to Room 5 (one step) and the balconies in the main hall. A warden may be required to let you in the basement if you use a wheelchair (there is separate access).

To book: please complete the form below and send it, with your cheque made payable to CBANW, to John Roberts, 22 Swinchiard Walk, Flint, Flintshire, CH6 5HB.

If you are also renewing your membership you need only send the one cheque / postal order as long as all the details are filled in on the two forms.

NB. No tickets or acknowledgements will be sent out. Lunch tickets are issued at registration. If you wish to check on your payment/booking feel free to contact John 01352 734534 roberts193@btinternet.com.

Places will be allocated as forms are received. Please book promptly.
