

CBA North-West Spring Conference:

The Mesolithic of North-West England: Current Research

May 11th 2013,
Upper Hall, The Friends Meeting House,
6 Mount St, Manchester M2 5NS

09.15-10.00	Registration, tea/ coffee
10.00-10.45	CBA NW AGM
10.45-11.00	Comfort break
11.00-11.30	'The map is not the territory': some thoughts on the Mesolithic of North-West England	Andrew Myers
11.30-12.15	A tale of 27,000 buckets - excavating a transitional Mesolithic/Neolithic site at Stainton West, Carlisle	Paul Clark
12.15-13.00	Geochemical sourcing of black chert for reconstructing resource procurement, social boundaries and territories in the Mesolithic of Northern England	Randy Donahue and Adrian Evans
13.00-14.00	LUNCH
14.00-14.30	Feet first at Formby: a study of the footprints of a hunter-gatherer coastal community during the Mesolithic/Neolithic transition.	Alison Burns
14.30-15.00	Blade Runner - The Mesolithic Cut: the chaînes opératoires of the Mesolithic in the Central Pennines, England.	Paul R Preston
15.00-15.30	Tea/ coffee
15.30-16.15	Cass ny Hawin II (the sequel) - a Mesolithic village on the Isle of Man?	Fraser Brown
16.15-17.00	Initial thoughts on late Mesolithic structures excavated at Lunt Meadows, Sefton, Merseyside.	Ron Cowell