

TAMESIDE HISTORY CLUB 2014

presents.....

All events held at Tameside Local Studies and Archives Centre,
Central Library, Ashton

Local History Walk around Stamford Park

Wednesday 11 June 2pm meet with Alan Rose at Highfield Café in the centre of the park

© Tameside MBC 2002 e-mail archives@mail.tameside.gov.uk

Breach of Promise to Marry Wednesday 17 September 2pm

Charles Dickens' Miss Havesham is the most famous Victorian spurned fiancée. Join us to hear local author Denise Bates discuss her new book about local jilted women (and sometimes rejected suitors) who employed a range of tactics to bring false lovers to book.

The Girls Who Walked Away Wednesday 22 October 2pm

Anne McGarry gives an illustrated talk about her new book- 'Fairfield Girls, their lives and times and the female struggle for equality 1796-2013. Copies of Anne's book will be available to purchase on the day

© Tameside MBC 2002 email archives@mail.tameside.gov.uk

Middle Class Motoring Wednesday 13 November 2pm

Dr Craig Horner from Manchester Metropolitan University will give an illustrated talk based on his research into motoring in the North West in Edwardian times. He will show how the use of the car and motorbike were firmly entrenched by this period, and that it wasn't just a sport for the very rich.

Ring 0161 342 4242 to book your FREE place